PHILMONT TRAINING CENTER

CIMARRON, NEW MEXICO

The Philmont Training Center is located in Cimarron, New Mexico, nestled in the beautiful Sangre de Cristo Mountains. Displaying some of the most unique lands, this is truly where the Rockies meet the plains.

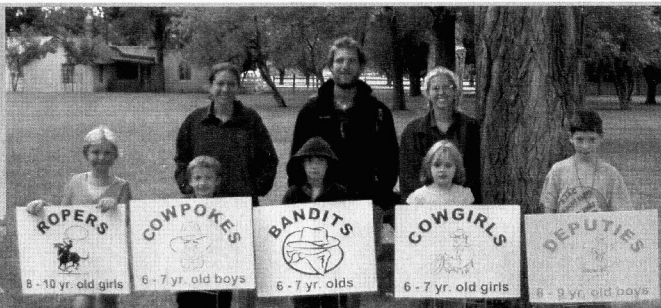

Conferences

Each summer and fall, the Philmont Training Center hosts over 80 separate weeklong training sessions—from Cub Scouting and Boy Scouting to Council and District Operations, from Venturing and Professional Development to Scoutreach and Finance—there's something for everyone.

Conferences are determined by various departments of the National Council and conducted by an outstanding faculty of volunteer and professional Scouters.

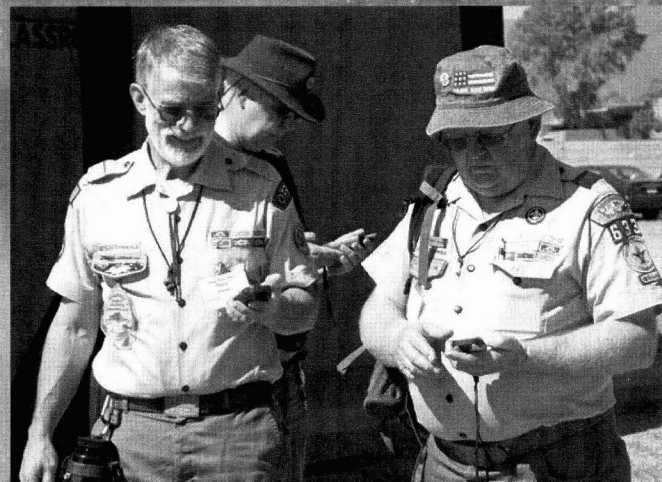

The classrooms are equipped with top of the line technology—wireless internet, LCD projectors, surround sound audio—everything to make your conference at the Philmont Training Center successful.

Family Programs

The Philmont Training Center is also proud to offer a fully organized program for every member of the family. Family members are encouraged to attend the Training Center and enjoy activities, nature and solitude while their Scouter is in session.

Depending on each age group, family members may partake in nature hiking, horse riding, a rope course, handicrafts, touring local attractions, and much, much more.

Attractions

While visiting the Philmont Training Center, there are several opportunities for exploring the beautiful, historic area. Participants may tour the Villa Philmonte, the summer home of Philmont's benefactors—Waite and Genevieve Phillips, thumb through a collection of old books in the Seton Museum and Library or travel the Santa Fe Trail at the Rayado Kit Carson Museum.

For the outdoor enthusiasts, participants may also enjoy hiking Philmont's Urraca Trail, Lovers' Leap Trail, Nature Trail or to view the world renowned T-Rex footprint.

Each evening, family activities such as Western Dancing, Dutch Oven Cobbler, Singing, Bingo, Movie Night, branding and programs are available.
